Good news to English-speaking users:

I have finished the basic part of work on translate Fireboard RE into English language!

If I have passed something - please inform me.
The file in a head post on my forum is updated!

Only buttons are not replaced, they remained Russian. You can copy buttons from the English version from catalogues of icons and emoticons. Some pictures are not present at the English version (ex. users groups pictures), and you should draw them. :lol:
