I just installed the fireBoard, and i love way it looks, im sure it'll just get better as it's version goes up...

as for now im having a problem with the profile. On the Profile, Forum Settings, Private Messaging..etc..
Something like this..:

Personal Info Summary Edit Your Details My Avatar
Forum Settings Look and Layout My Profile Info My Posts
My Subscribes My Favorites Private Messaging Inbox New Message Outbox Trash Blocked List ContactsSettings

they don't show organized as they do in the besofjoomla.com profile for example..

Can anyone help me?:unsure:

Red Darkness is an incompatible template if that is what you are using. Also make sure you have the fbfiles folder in the correct place as is laid out in the manual.
