Well i created a simple site that can give alot of services for most people from latest news (non politics), documents, tools for some online games, some downloads some tips and i installed fireboard and put there some nice stuff for people who need music movies also i made part for general talk and online games like hattrick and king and country also utopia and others.

well visit us leave ur comments here maybe i can use some of ur ideas to make the site better.

its free services :P

Regards
